ACADEMIC SERVICE

- 2012 - Present Joseph S. Bruno Auburn Study Abroad in Italy, Board Member
The Joseph S. Bruno Auburn Study Abroad board meets biannually to discuss issues and budget related items relating to the study abroad program.
- 2011 - Present Environmental Design and Research Association (EDRA), Conference Reviewer
An international, interdisciplinary organization that focuses on environmental design research that examines the interrelationships between people and their built and natural surroundings, and aims to create environments responsive to human needs. Conference paper reviewers are invited to review papers for publication in the annual conference proceedings.
- 2011 - 2012 Professional Enrichment Grants (PEG) Reviewer, Clemson University
The Professional Enrichment Grant is an internal grant at Clemson University. Grants are reviewed bi-annually, and reviewers are interviewed for selection, and then trained to review grants within their own specialty.
- 2010 - 2011 Grisham Trentham Lecture Series, Committee Co-Chair, Auburn University
The Grisham Trentham Lecture Series has brought nationally and internationally recognized designers and business leaders to the Auburn campus to share their insights, experiences, and successes with students, faculty, and guests. As co-chair, responsibilities included coordinating with the committee, planning the event, and securing the guest speaker.
- 2010 - 2011 International Association of Lighting Designers (IALD), Faculty Advisor, Auburn University
IALD is a professional networking and educational association for lighting designers. There are over 700 lighting designers around the world who are members of the IALD and hold a position of distinction and authority in the lighting design profession. The charter year for this student group chapter was initiated in fall 2010.
- 2010 Interior Design Educational Council (IDEC) South Region Creative Scholarship Co-Chair
The IDEC south region creative scholarship co-chair responsibilities included locating outside jurors to blind review creative scholarship entries in the design and art categories.
- 2009 - 2010 University President's Climate Action Plan (CAP) Buildings Task Force, Auburn University
The Office of Sustainability began working on the Auburn Climate Action Plan to develop specific approaches to address the American College and University Presidents' Climate Commitment, which Auburn President Jay Gogue signed in fall 2008. The Climate Action Plan, or CAP, is a campus-wide, inclusive process. The 'Buildings Group' evaluated and developed recommendations to carry forward the strategic planning goal of LEED rating for new buildings and renovations across campus.
