

Consumer and Design Sciences Thesis and Dissertation Research Grant (CADS-TDRG) Application

The Department of Consumer and Design Sciences will award up to $500 for proposed thesis or dissertation research. Please note that this grant is intended to facilitate thesis or dissertation research and will be awarded for future research expenditures rather than for completed research. This grant can be awarded only once for each degree.

1. Name of student:
2. Name of major professor(s):
3. Title of thesis/dissertation:
4. Proposed project duration: _____ to _____
5. Amount requested from the Department of Consumer and Design Sciences:
6. Other Funds applied for/received for supporting the thesis or dissertation research

Source	Funding Amount	Comments

Please attach:

- Summary of proposed thesis or dissertation research (1 page maximum, double- or single-spaced)
- Student's curriculum vitae
- Detailed budget with narrative justifying each proposed expenditure: Expenditure categories: (a) expendable supplies (materials needed for conducting the research), (b) participant incentives, (c) travel required to conduct the project (number of trips planned, where, when, etc.), (d) other (please specify).

Please submit the application to the CADS Department Head (Dr. Young A Lee, yzl0241@auburn.edu); copy your major professor(s) on the application submission email. Those receiving CADS-TDRG should email the Department Head at the conclusion of the thesis/dissertation to (1) note how funds were spent and (2) provide a brief summary of the key findings of the thesis/dissertation (1 page maximum, double- or single-spaced).